

IIE Bachelor of Commerce in Law

School of Law

This IIE Bachelor of Commerce in Law (BCom) degree is aimed at students who are interested in understanding and critically analysing fundamental legal and business concepts, principles, theories and their relationship to values. The students will also be afforded skills to identify, categorise, analyse and critically evaluate information and evidence from a legal and business perspective. Importantly, graduates are equipped with the ability to communicate correctly, coherently and successfully within a legal and business setting by means of written, oral, persuasive methods and sustained discourse.
